 - 8.1.5 skills development levies.

9 OTHER TYPES OF RECORDS HELD BY THE COMPANY AS CONTEMPLATED IN SECTION 51(1)(c)

- 9.1 These records are identified in Annexure A hereto and are not automatically available without a request in terms of the Act.
- 9.2 A request in terms of this section is subject to section 63(1) of the Act which provides that the head of a private body may refuse a request for access to a record of the company if the disclosure of the record would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information about a third party including a deceased individual.

10 PROCEDURE FOR REQUESTING INFORMATION NOT AUTOMATICALLY AVAILABLE

- 10.1 A request must be made on the prescribed form. A copy of the form is attached marked Annexure B. The form is also available from the website of the HRC or the website of the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development at www.doj.gov.za.
- 10.2 The prescribed form should be submitted to the request liaison officer at his/her address, telefax number or email address, who will hand it to the head of the company or who will deal with the request himself.
- 10.3 The same procedure as set out in clause 10.1 and 10.2 applies if the requester is requesting information on behalf of another person or on behalf of a permanent employee of the company.
- 10.4 The following fees should accompany the prescribed form:
- 10.4.1 R50.00;
- 10.4.2 if the head of the company or the request liaison officer is of the opinion that six (6) hours will be exceeded to search, reproduce and/or prepare the information requested, a deposit is payable to one-third at an amount of R30.00 (thirty rand) per hour or part thereof exceeding the six (6) hours.
- 10.5 The head of the company, as soon as reasonably possible and within thirty (30) days after the request has been received, shall decide whether or not to grant the request.
- 10.6 The requester will be notified of the decision of the head of the company or the request liaison officer in the manner indicated by the requester.

- 10.7 If the request is granted, the requester shall be informed by the head of the company or the request liaison officer in the manner indicated by the requester in the prescribed form.
- 10.8 Notwithstanding the foregoing, the company will advise the requester in the manner stipulated by the requester in the prescribed form of:
- 10.8.1 The access fee to be paid for the information (in accordance with clause 7.3.
- 10.8.2 the format in which access will be given;
- 10.8.3 the fact that the requester may lodge an appeal with a court of competent jurisdiction against the access fee charged or the format in which access is to be granted.
- 10.9 After access is granted, actual access to the record requested will be given as soon as reasonably possible.
- 10.10 If the request for access is denied, the head of the company or the request liaison officer shall advise the requester in writing in a notice of refusal. The notice of refusal shall state:
- 10.10.1 Adequate reasons for the refusal;
- 10.10.2 that the requester may lodge an appeal with a court of competent jurisdiction against the refusal of the request (including the period) for lodging such appeal.
- 10.11 Upon the refusal by the head of the company or the request liaison officer, the deposit paid by the requester will be refunded.
- 10.12 If the head of the company or the request liaison officer fails to respond within thirty (30) days after a request has been received, it is deemed, in terms of Section 58 read together with Section 56(1) of the Act, that the head of the company or the request liaison officer has refused the request.
- 10.13 The head of the company may decide to extend the period of thirty (30) days (“original period”) for another period of not more than thirty (30) days if:
- 10.13.1 The request is for a large number of records; or

- 10.13.2 the search for the records is to be conducted at premises not situated in the same town or city as the head office of the company; or
 - 10.13.3 consultation among divisions or departments, as the case may be, of the company is required; or
 - 10.13.4 the requester consents to such an extension in writing; or
 - 10.13.5 the parties agree in any other manner to such an extension.
- 10.14 Should the company require an extension of time, the requester shall be informed in the manner stipulated in the prescribed form of the reasons for the extension.
- 10.15 The requester may lodge an appeal with a court of competent jurisdiction against any extension or against any procedure set out in this section.

11 INFORMATION OR RECORDS NOT FOUND

- 11.1 If a requested record cannot be found or if the records do not exist, the head of the company or the request liaison officer must, by way of an affidavit or an affirmation, notify the requester that it is not possible to give access to the requested record.
- 11.2 The affidavit or affirmation must provide a full account of all the steps taken to find the record or to determine the existence thereof, including details of all communications by the head of the company or the request liaison officer with every person who conducted the search.
- 11.3 This notice will be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record concerned for the purposes of the Act.
- 11.4 If the record should later be found, the requester must be given access to the record in the manner stipulated by the requester in the prescribed form unless access is refused by the head of the company or the request liaison officer.
- 11.5 The attention of the requester is drawn to the provisions of Chapter 4 of the Act in terms of which the company may refuse, on certain specified grounds, to provide information to a requester.

12 INFORMATION REQUESTED ABOUT A THIRD PARTY

- 12.1 Section 71 of the Act makes provision for a request for information or records about a third party.
- 12.2 In considering such a request, the company will adhere to the provisions of Section 71 to 74 of the Act.
- 12.3 The attention of the requester is drawn to the provisions of Chapter 5 of Part 3 of the Act in terms of which the company is obliged, in certain circumstances, to advise third parties of requests lodged in respect of information applicable to or concerning such third parties. In addition, the provisions of Chapter 2 of Part 4 of the Act entitle third parties to dispute the decisions of the head of the company or the request liaison officer by referring matters to any court of competent jurisdiction.

13 ACCESS TO HEALTH OR OTHER RECORDS

- 13.1 If the information or a deputy information officer who grants a request for access to a record provided by a health practitioner in his or her capacity as such about the physical or mental health, or well-being:

13.1.1 of the requester; or

13.1.2 if the request has been made on behalf of the person to whom the record relates, of that person is of the opinion that the disclosure of the record to the requester might cause serious harm to such person's physical or mental health or well-being, the information officer may, before granting access, consult with a health practitioner who has been nominated by the requester.

- 13.2 If such health practitioner is of the opinion that the disclosure of the record to the requester would be likely to cause serious harm to such person's physical or mental health or well-being, the information officer may only give access to the record if the requester provides that adequate provision has been made for such counselling as may be necessary in the circumstances.
- 13.3 Before access to the record is so given to the requester, the person responsible for such counselling must be given access to the record.
